Al Faleh Educational Holding Q.P.S.C. Signing a Land Lease Agreement with Qatari Diar for the Launch of a New International World-Class School in Lusail, Qatar

Al Faleh Educational Holding Q.P.S.C. signed a land lease agreement with Qatari Diar. The prime land, located in the vibrant and rapidly developing city of Lusail, Qatar, will serve as the site for the construction of a new world-class school. The group aims to open the school in August 2027. The school will be operated in collaboration with one of the most prestigious UK-based schools, offering a cutting-edge educational experience designed to prepare students for the challenges of the future.

A formal agreement was executed on the 6th of February between Dr. Sheikha Aisha Al Thani, the Chairperson of Al Faleh Educational Holding and Eng. Fahad Abdullatif Al Jahrami, Chief Development and Asset Management Officer of Qatari Diar, during a signing ceremony. This significant partnership marks a key milestone in strengthening the collaboration between the two organizations.

The event was attended by Sheikha Anwar bint Nawaf Al Thani CEO of Al Faleh Educational Holding, and representatives of Qatari Diar Eng. Khalid Ebrahim Al Hammadi, Director of Asset Management – Qatar, Animesh Pandey, Senior Manager of Asset Management, Denis Borisenko Manager of Commercial Assets, along with Mr Edward Cooper, Principal of Doha Academy schools. Both parties expressed their enthusiasm for the long-term potential of the agreement and the positive impact it is expected to have on their respective organizations.

“Lusail is one of the most ambitious and forward-thinking urban developments in Qatar, a hub for innovation, culture, and commerce. We are delighted to be part of that development”. said Dr Sheikha Aisha Al Thani.

“We are delighted to partner with Qatari Diar to bring this exciting new educational project to life,” said Sheikha Anwar Al Thani, CEO of Al Faleh Educational Holding. “This is an important milestone in our efforts to build a global educational institution that reflects the highest international standards while aligning with the values and aspirations of the local community. By investing in Lusail, we are setting the stage for future generations of students who will become leaders, innovators, and responsible global citizens,” continued Sheikha Anwar.

Collaborating with a Prestigious UK-based School

Al Faleh Educational Holding cooperates with one of the most prestigious institutions to operate the new school. This collaboration brings decades of experience and a proven track record of academic success, as well as a forward-thinking approach to teaching and learning. The partnership will enable the school to deliver a world-class curriculum that blends British educational excellence with a focus on the skills and knowledge required in today's interconnected, rapidly evolving world.

The UK school's curriculum will be adapted to meet the needs of Qatar's diverse and multicultural student body, ensuring that students receive an education that is not only academically rigorous but also inclusive, culturally sensitive, and globally relevant. The school will offer a full range of programs, from early years education through to secondary school, providing a comprehensive educational experience that prepares students for higher education and successful careers.
